School-within-a-school is an alternative program at B.H.S.. It is designed for 100 students who want an opportunity to take more responsibility for their own education. SWS has its own staff of teachers, and students usually take courses both in SWS and in the regular school. One requirement of being in SWS is Town Meeting which takes place two F blocks every week.

Although we missed the States AGAIN we still had an exceedingly good time . . .

- *Kim throwing the ball out the bus window, and Saly limping down Rte. 9 to get it
- *Julia the Vampire
- *The "sselarb" wonders
- *Elephants (Dewey's favorite)
- *Our N.Q. comeback . . . our only comeback
- *Injuries, injuries, injuries
- *The foxes at Sports Medicine
- *Karen's "makeup" job
- *Eric — where were you in the beginning of the season???
- *"Listen up, people."
- *Roses in homeroom — "awwwwwww"
- *DEFENSE!! "we get no respect" "6 on 1!
- *"I wanna be Bobby's girl . . . "
- *Our cable debut, N.N.5, BHS 0
- *JV boycott
- *Upstairs/Downstairs
- *Meetings?????
- *Ice/Mud fights
- *Hacky Sack

We were only 7-7-4, but our spirits were never dampened, (except when it rained). And then there was Rich . . . Next year he won't be a new coach anymore and he won't have any wild and crazy seniors to deal with, so tune in next year — same time, same place, same channel for an undefeated season! Good luck!!!

The road warriors of 1984 will leave behind many memories . . .
— those running tights that showed off the sexiest legs at Brookline High . . .
— the injury of 1984 — Mike Kelly hurting his back while playing with a footbag in the Quad; the doctors diagnosed it as hacky-back . . .
— the computer clique — Pete, Walter, and Jun . . .
— the amazing bumper crop of freshmen which will insure Brookline competitiveness for years to come . . .
— the OP tradition thrust upon the team by Josh Becker, who made waves with his fabulous kick . . .
— the "man with no tan" Jon Flatley continued to be the Great White Hope of Brookline (although insiders say he might be rivaled by the head winter track coach) . . .
— "Spike" Skillman finally living up to his name by sticking it to them at Brockton . . .
— the inspiring leadership by co-captain Stefan after losing both the meet and our other co-captain Ben to North Quincy . . . .
— Dave Gordon who was always "itching" to get going . . .
— Big Brother did have an influence on the team — no less than six people have had brothers on the team in the past few years . . .
— the unknown soldiers — Mike and Dave, who were a prevailing force on the team until they succumbed to sickness and injury . . .
— the undefeated JV team led by Matt, Mark, Chris and Josh — they are going to take Cambridge next year, no problem . . .

1984 was a lot of fun; I wish everyone luck in the future. Take care guys,

Brad Skillman

GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY

Row One: Lillian Moy, Zoe Stringham, Tehani Collazo, Meaghann McCarthy, Mara Motherway. Row Two: Coach Allyson Toney, Joanna Doerfer, Cindy Lyons.

The 1984 season brought about several changes for the Girls' Track team. First, Mr. Schluntz, head of the athletic department, recognized the need for a coach and assigned Ms. Allyson Toney to head the team. Ms. Toney brought new hope and life to the team while running with us. The team also underwent changes in its membership, it lost 3 members and gained two, Zoe Stringham and Mara Motherway. Our first few meets were frustrating because we were unable to qualify with only 4 runners. Nonetheless, we continued to run through the hills and rocky terrain to reach our own goals, and with each race our individual performances improved. The season wore on and we were able to recruit Joanna Osler, Cyndy Lyons, Lillian Moy, and Gwen Field, our group of 4 had evolved into a team of 8.

The team is young, made up of only sophomores and freshmen, and next season with our newly gained experience and new runners, we look forward to offering some serious competition to our opponents in the Suburban League. So watch out Newton, Brookline is on its way.

Dear Everyone,

Well, another season's passed on a steadily improving member of the Greater Boston League. We had a fun, hard-working (most of the time) season, which included two spectacular televised games. We tried (and succeeded!) in convincing everyone we played, Ms. Gregory, Ellen, and especially ourselves that YES WE CAN! (Just how many towels didn't get ripped off that afternoon?)

Thanks to all you guys for all the time, effort, and sweat put into making this a terrific season. For those of us who will move on next year, we hope it's to bigger and better things. For those we leave behind, we hope you guys have more great years to follow. Don't forget:

G-E-T-P-S-Y-C-H-E-D Get Psyched ooo ooo Get Psyched!!!!

Thanks!

Fast Times At Brookline High Looking back at the winningest season in BHS track history (4-1) we will remember several things apart from our individual races. Remember: Trying to find an assistant coach, Robard's dancing, Beating Newton for the first time, royal blue Hind speed pants, two hour bus rides home from Cambridge, Ron and Uthman's pre-practice wrestling matches, Fuzz, J.V. meets against every Catholic school in eastern Mass., flying to Boise for a meet against Idaho State, Stefan Mackenzie the hoser, running at Nickerson "rink", Vokman having an excuse for every hard practice, playing cutthroat and football before, during, and after practice, Jon being on time for practice, training at our new facility on top of the M.T. building, Ken Steinet, or is it Steinway, or is it Stedman . . . , Peter pumping iron, BJ's for the juniors, Bob and Bill, the Dynamic Duo, Jason, Bernard, and Dave Meyers refusing to run at night after, "A Nightmare On Elm Street," Josh and Mike Kelly: the sackin' leaders of tomorrow, Mike U. who actually likes running the deuce, and all the great times that made this such a productive season. Good luck guys in '86 and rammi rammi to all.

HOCKEY

This year's Hockey team finished with a disappointing 2-13-3 record. We started the season with only 4 seniors, and inexperienced underclassmen. The teams inexperience and lack of strength proved to be a major factor in the outcome of the season.

Even though we were losing a lot of games, there was not one point in the season where we stopped giving 100%. As they always have, coach Ron DiVincenzo and assistant coach Richard Freccero provided incentive to keep improving, and always believed that we could win.

We are hopeful for next year's team which will be lead by 21 goal scorer Rich Sheridan, and linemates Tom Sutherland and Jason Rathbone. Other returning fowards will be Brian Slavin, Mike Keaveny, Bill Shanda, Tom Heffernan, Danny Teahan, and scoring sensation Chris McGourty. All of the Defense is returning with the exception of Kevin Kelley who should go in the first round of the N.H.L. draft this year. Once again the Goaltending looks strong for next year. Joe Marco and Joe Palermo will be battling for the starting job.

Alright boys, here's what we have to do . . .

This year's Boys' Gymnastics Team showed definite progress and promise towards the future. Even though the team had only four returning members from last year's team, an incredible number of new gymnasts joined in. This year's team was the biggest that Brookline has had in at least five years. And, considering the lack of experience that this group of gymnasts had, it was an excellent season for Brookline Boys' Gymnastics.

Getting people to join gymnastics was the easy part this season, the hard part was keeping them interested in coming back. But, it seems as though this group of people is eager and waiting for next season to begin. The team is only losing two seniors, and next year, under the new captain Jason Wong, the team will have power and depth. Coupling the Boys' team with the amazing Girls' team, Brookline Gymnastics will hopefully get greater respect than it has been getting the past couple of seasons.

Finally, I'd just like to mention that this team has made me very proud to be their captain. I want to thank our coach Steve Gosdanian for making this season so special.

Thank you and good luck

Sincerely,
Eduardo Ovalle

SKI TEAM

Last year David Gordon, Jan Larsen, and Josh Clayton-Felt decided that the school needed a ski team. Starting a ski team at Brookline High had been tried before without any success, but these three finally made it happen. The ski team's first coach, Newel Ficker, helped them get started and taught them the basics of racing. They were allowed to join the Massachusetts Bay Ski League for a one year trial period. Although the team was the worst in the combined cross country slalom league, the students' interest in the team convinced Mr. Schluntz and the school committee to award the team varsity status for the 1984-1985 school year.

This year, with a new coach from a high school in New Hampshire — Scott Butchart, and a score of new faces, we set out once again to prepare for another season. At the outset, we had to contend with many problems. Instead of real racing bibs, we were issued forgotten basketball jerseys. The bus to the meets was either late or didn't show at all. And there was always a shortage of girls for the team. Yet we showed promise from the start, more than 40 people showed up for our first meeting. After that we dedicated ourselves to getting in shape by working out and running at least three times a week.

Our first downhill meet went really well with excellent performances by Philip Gordon, Tim Sanville, Ben Mcgraw, Captain Steven Blank, Becky Zavastofsky, and Martha Ferdinand placing us fifth out of the ten league teams. In our first cross-country meet we placed fifth over all. And so it went for the rest of the season.

We want to thank Mr. Butchart, the Booster's Club, and Mr. Schluntz for helping this new team to finish fifth in the league.

So we only won one meet. It's no big deal because we know we deserved to win more. Our only fault (well, not our only fault) was that we were too small of a team. We might have done better: if Sandy hadn't been on crutches, if Laura hadn't got the flu, if Lisa wasn't hurting with her taped ankle, if Susan didn't slack off her senior year, if Sharon would have believed she did her best, if Nicole hadn't graduated, if the pavillion didn't give shin splints, if we had gotten our baton passes to work, or if we could have found a two miler who ran sub-eleven, jumped 5'4" and liked running the relay.

— To the track team next year we leave all the problems and most of the good times. Maybe next year Brookline will be Suburban League Champs. Maybe not.

ROBERTS HOUSE THE AFFORDABLE PARADISE

Deciding on a vacation spot to bring the family next Christmas? Consider Roberts House. By far less expensive than the major resorts, it offers all the advantages of the larger houses while retaining the quaint small house atmosphere. The scenic view on to Cypress Field is breathtaking and the heating works fairly well. The most appealing thing about Roberts House, though, is the locals — with all their strange foreign tribal customs, they are warm and hospitable, often inviting guests and their parents to show up early in the morning or late in the afternoon for quaint and curious discussions.

So next year think of Roberts House, the affordable paradise. — Michael Frankel

Ms. Chaet

Members of the B.H.S. community and visitors to the building entering near Roberts House door to the second floor are often well-aware of the location of the Home Economics rooms at the top of the stairs. People are greeted by the delicious aromas emanating from the foods laboraties and are instantly drawn by the fragrance of garlic and spices as students saute, simmer, and bake regional and international dishes in a veritable buffet of course offerings. Students have the opportunity to experiment in a huge variety of creative food experiences in such courses as American Cooking, Foreign Foods I and II, and French Country Cooking.

Nearby in the clothing laboratory, students are sewing a variety of garments of their choosing from jogging suits and sportswear to more formal attire such as prom gowns using commercial patterns or original designs. In addition to clothing construction, students on occasion elect to sew a decorative item for the home or gear for camping, skiing or back-packing.

Performing Arts

The Dance Department is "leaping" right along. It is "tripping" into it's tenth year. For the first time a male dance teacher has joined the faculty and with him comes an increase in male students dancers. Along with regular class instruction in ballet, modern/jazz, and composition, the department produces an annual "Progressions" concert with more and more professionalism evident in the performances. The dance department has also formed and ensemble of select dances dedicated to more performances and professional aspirations. The dance department interacts with the other performing arts (music and drama) to produce madrigal dinners, school musicals, and studio concerts. Students are also made more aware of dance by in and out of school attendance at professional dance performances.

TRIBUTE TO THE STAFF OF '85

There once was a staff of 17 dudes
Whose editing skills at first were real crude
But then, pretty soon they got quite a grip
of Murivian tricks from that loveable Schnipp.
There were Mike's donut lunches
Lelia's constant trans-world trips
Jon's continuous study crunches
Maria's sold deposit slips?
Stef we know was always running
Julie Wong just talked so fast
Jessie's outfits — always stunning
Emm's voice level what a BLAST!
Julie's senior picture tallies
Sara and her short cut hair
Amy, hey — peace, love and rallies
Kenny and cropping, oh what a pair!
And don't forget Kara who understood all
Then Jane who always wanted to laugh
The artwork of Randall we always could call
His spirit, not presence was part of the staff
Here at the end, (we'll make it quite brief)
You guys worked so hard — You are the best!
We're proud to have been your Eds-In-Chief
We love you all — Nance and Jess

State of the Drama Society Address

My fellow BHS students,

It's been a year of growth and potential for this great society of ours. Confidence is at an all time high, and we are once again standing tall. It is now, at the closing of this eventful year that we ask you . . .

HAVE YOU SEEN MORE DRAMA TODAY THAN YOU HAD ONE YEAR AGO?!! (applause, applause, applause)

But it hasn't been an easy year. Cutbacks, bad backs, and a new attractive drama teacher have contributed to a tense situation in A-Wing. Thus Director of Drama, Iain Ryrie ("One Way", "Pippin", and several other shows that Dr. McCarthy and Dr. Slater refused to endorse) is auditioning the following roles for the '85-'86 season:

Role	Type	Presently Played By
THE PRESIDENT	fiery nordic beauty, part-time cabaret dancer, motherly	Mari Pauldick
THE VICE-PRESIDENT	sweet, overly passionate, dry wit	Andrea Chipman
PUBLICITY	small time hood and con-artist, dissipated, goofy, stutters	Sean Kelley
SECRETARY	angelic and fluffy, aspiring playboy cocktail waitress	Nancy Berkowitz
EXECUTIVE MEMBER	long-haired radical in a business suit	Joshua Frost

Also — many other underpaid, overworked extras, walk-ons etc.
*Iain Ryrie notes that these are all tough acts to follow.

Please send Pictures and Resumes to:
Iain Ryrie
CONFIDENCE BUILDING FOR ACTORS WORKSHOP ROOM 224

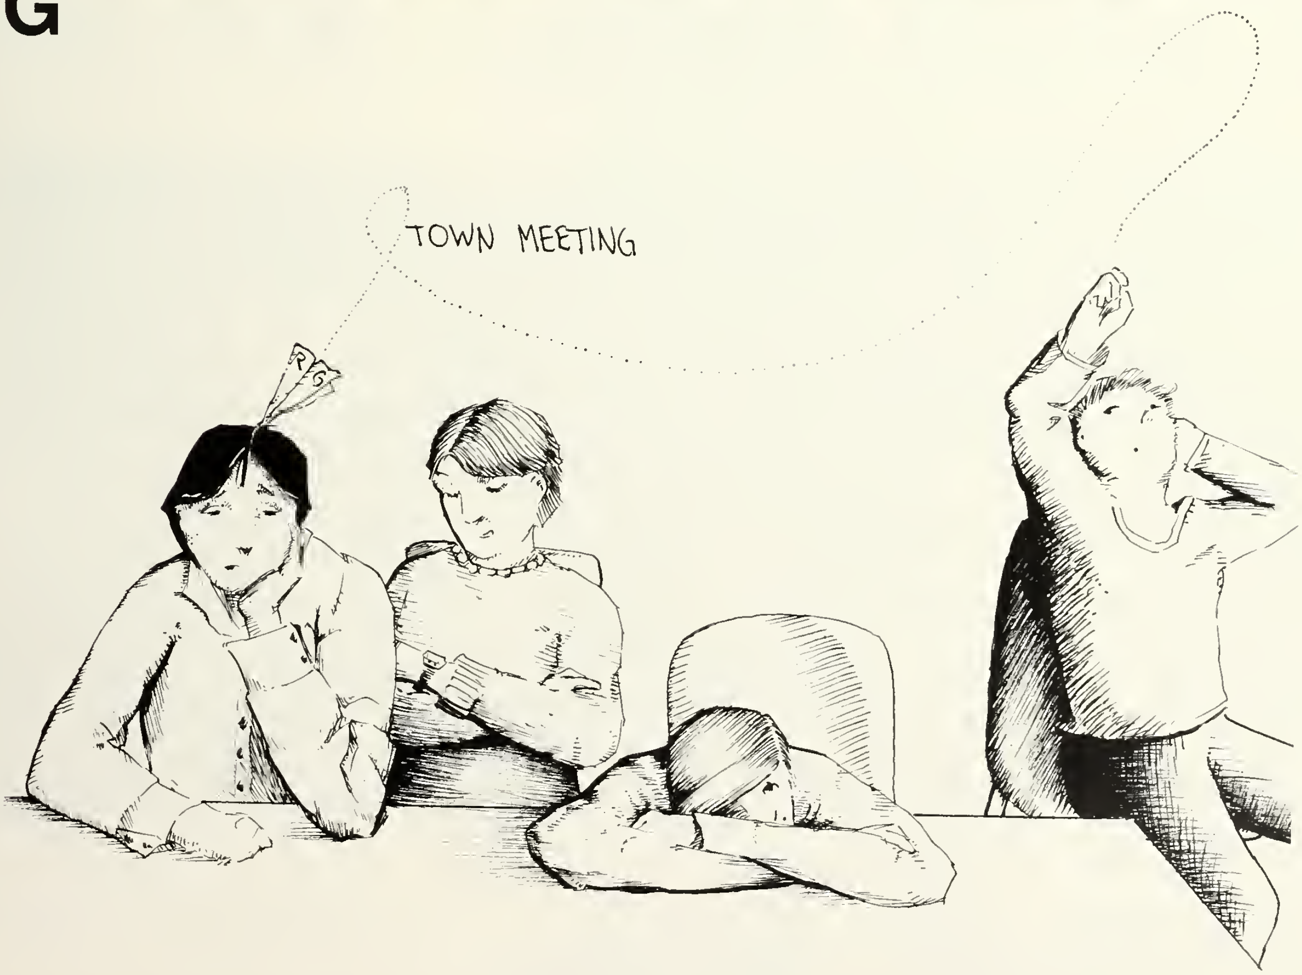
Finally, we would like to commend Claire Berman for surviving both Boot Camp with Iain, and Survival Training with Freshman Drama I.

Thank You All for your loyalty — The Exec

(The opinions expressed on this page are not necessarily those of the Murivian, BHS, or the Drama Society)

TOWN MEETING

Brookline High School's Town Meeting is the main governing body of the entire school community and is made up of representatives from all the major constituencies in the high school — students, faculty and staff. The group meets every Wednesday during X-block in an open meeting to decide school policy and to establish school rules.



Senior Steering

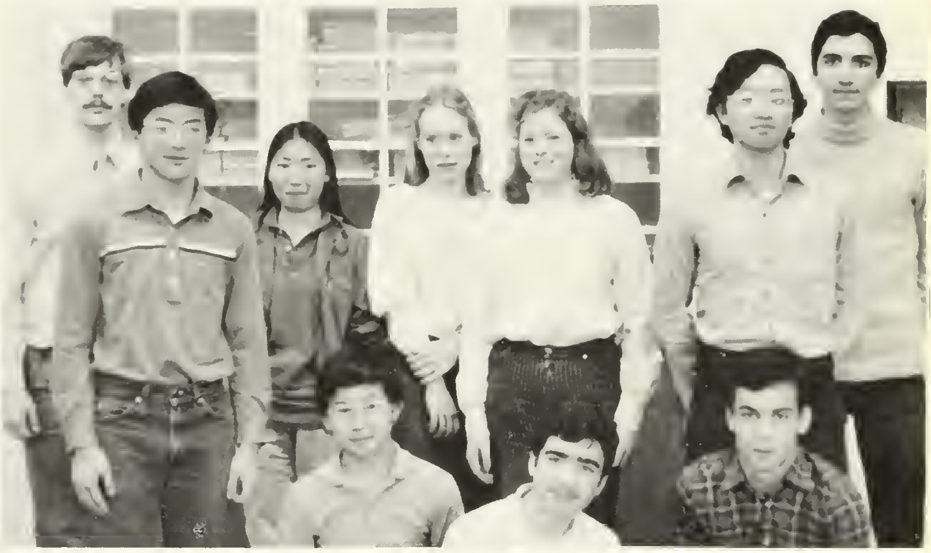
Junior Steering

Computer Club

Science Club

This year the Science Club intends to broaden the scientific awareness of the student body of Brookline High School. We are a group of students interested in Science and we wish to learn more about the world around us and the principles on which the world works. We sponsor different sorts of trips to scientifically oriented places such as Harvard, M.I.T., various museums, laboratories, and so forth. Also we conduct experiments, lectures and science contests.

Math Team



Strategic Simulations Club

Latin Club

The Latin Club promotes interest and enthusiasm in classical culture. Projects include a Saturnalia banquet, participation in the Mass. and National Junior Classical League.

Far East Club

The Far East Club consists of a small group of students who participate in group activites-movies, bake sales, weekend trips, luncheons, and sports. In addition, these students have the chance to meet kids from other Asian student Clubs.

Spanish Club

Because we are truly international this year, we have tried to incorporate many aspects of Latin American culture into our activities. However, our main goal this year has been to bring hispanic culture to the high school (ie. the film 'El Norte")

Black Awareness Club

Le Cercle Francais

The French Club is a très chic group of kids. This year, we had a frisbee game with the Latin Club. Our annual crêpe party is always a big hit. We also see French films. Our brunches and dinners are a gourmet's treat. Sur tout, tout va très bien!

International Students Club

The International Students Club is a social group for BHS students who have come from other countries. This year the club has about 40 members, from 15 countries. Through this club, students can meet each other, develop a circle of friends, and make an impact on the school as a group. We have picnics, roller skating, parties, cultural activities and trips.

Horseback Riding Club

The club allows riders, beginners and advanced alike to develop their skills. This year we have been very successful in getting beginners to ride on a regular basis and also in having a stable group of advanced riders which we hope will compete as a team. Besides handling horses, and riding, the club also attends Hunt and Dressage — Showing Events, movies, and demonstrations.

Ski Club

Table Tennis Club

The Table Tennis Club is a group of people who play ping-pong, trying to improve their skills and meet other players, in an attempt to win various tournaments and prizes sponsored by the club.

T.O.S.C.O.B.

The Orogenic Scaling Club of Brookline, is an outdoor group dedicated to the growth and enrichment of the individual through experience and adventure in the great outdoors. T.O.S.C.O.B trips vary in diversity from hiking, snowshoeing, and biking, to canoeing, the only limitations being the desires of the group.

Amnesty International

Amnesty International is a social action group dedicated to freeing "prisoners of conscience" and against the use of capital punishment.

B.A.S.E.

Project BASE: Basic Alcohol Safety Education, located in Room 322, trains peer educators to promote responsible decisions concerning the non-use of alcohol.

“Vanessa and Iris

“Vanessa and Iris; a journal for young feminists” is an organization of creative and political activity for young women. That staff puts out a journal every five weeks and attends lectures, films, and demonstrations.

U.N. Club

Marching Band

Writers & Company

Writers & Company is a recently established literary club in the high school. The club meets to discuss prose, poetry and short stories written by the members as well as pieces done by other students of BHS. A magazine is periodically published by us, and professional writers have been guest speakers at some of our meetings.

Nuclear Education Project

The Nuclear Education Project is a non-partisan group that works to educate its members and the greater high school community on a variety of issues directly surrounding the arms race.It works on the basis that those who are educated about the nuclear arms race may develop more intelligent and well based opinions on it. Members are then encouraged to express their nuclear-political beliefs, whatever they may be.

Students For Political Understanding

Students For Political Understanding is a group that assists in having political speakers visit Brookline High. The club meets often to discuss current events and how to educated other students on moderate to conservative viewpoints.

Tech Crew

Not to be confused with the pampered, glitzy show-biz personalities in the Drama Society, the men of the Tech Crew (otherwise known as "techies") specialize in the dirty work never read about in People Magazine. Braving high voltages, dizzying heights, complex machinery, and the often brutal wrath of I. Ryrie, the Tech Crew is revered by the school community for getting the job done right. Techies are available for plays, cultural events, assemblies, amateur beauty pageants, and anything else one could conceivably do in Roberts Auditorium. See Ms. Connor in the Main Office for details.

Thanks Iain, Claire, Judy, J.B., D. Whittier, C. Markusen, Mary Sullivan, Ms. Williams, Lynne Cohen, Sandi, and the Execs

Big Brother/Big Sister

The Big Brother Big Sister Program assists the incoming freshman class and all newly enrolled upperclass students in their exciting but sometimes frustrating efforts to adjust to BHS.

National Honor Society

Selects members on the basis of their outstanding academic achievement, good citizenship and service to the school community. The society provides a tutoring service for the students of the school and participates in fund-raising activities to provide a scholarship.

Ansty and Gopen's Kids

Key Club

Key Club is a service organization of B.H.S. The Kiwanis affiliated group has one of the largest memberships in the school and uses this great resource to raise money for scholarships and assist elderly, hospital, and youth organizations through volunteer work.

July 18, 1969 — October 2, 1984

"She left us with the feeling that we must maintain our strength in any situation, that we must always pursue our hopes and dreams and that we must not be afraid to strive for seemingly unreachable goals."

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1985!

Brookline High School gives you the freedom to try new things. Our book is a reflection of that. This place is unique and we are glad to have been a part of it.

Goodbye for now,

Nancy & Jessica
